Join PWEA-Retired by Joining VEA-Retired/NEA-Retired

Your membership in PWEA-Retired, VEA-Retired, and NEA-Retired helps your Associations achieve our goals for schools, for active school employees, and for retirees. Providing security and dignity for school retirees is and has always been a high priority, and you can help through your membership. When you join VEA-Retired/NEA-Retired as a lifetime member, you are automatically enrolled as a lifetime member of PWEA-Retired and are eligible for all benefits of membership.

Who's Eligible

VEA-Retired and NEA-Retired are programs of the Virginia Education Association and National Education Association for those who have retired from employment in the field of public education. Lifetime membership in VEA-Retired is available to retired educators and active VEA members prior to their retirement. Membership is open to all who worked in Virginia public schools, even if they now live out of state. Membership in PWEA-Retired is available to retired NEA members and current VEA-R/NEA-R members living in or near Prince William County, Virginia, regardless of local NEA-affiliate membership prior to retirement.

Benefits of Membership

Benefits of being a member VEA-Retired/NEA-Retired include the following:

- Liability insurance while substitute teaching.*
- Staying connected with fellow VEA and NEA members and programs.
- Opportunities to share your expertise by volunteering and mentoring.
- VEA's & NEA's political and legislative efforts to protect your retirement resources.
- Excellent, cost-saving programs such as Medicare supplement insurance and our long-term care insurance program.
- Continuing subscriptions to VEA News, The Virginia Journal of Education, and VEA's quarterly retiree newsletter, VEA-R Connections, and NEA's bimonthly retiree magazine, This Active Life.
- A variety of other money-saving member benefits, such as insurance programs, credit programs, loan and mortgage programs, deposit savings accounts, and investment programs are also available.

Benefits of being a member of PWEA-Retired include the following:

- Opportunities to maintain contact with and work with local VEA/NEA affiliates in and near Prince William County, Virginia.
- Participation in local social activities sponsored by PWEA-R and social activities of local affiliate Education Associations with whom we work, such as Prince William Association and Manassas Education Association.

How to Join

Complete the membership form on the reverse side of this paper and return it to the Prince William Education Association, 8510 Bucyrus Court, Manassas, VA 20110. Cost of membership is listed on the form.

Please Note: We strongly recommend that everyone join the unified PWEA-R/VEA-R/NEA-R; however, membership in PWEA-R only is permitted. Membership in PWEA-R only does NOT include any VEA-R and NEA-R benefits. The cost of annual PWEA-R membership only is currently $25.00 and is subject to yearly increases.

Check here if you are joining all three organizations (PWEA-R/VEA-R/NEA-R). If paying by check, please make it payable to the Virginia Education Association.

Check here if you are joining PWEA-R only. For this option, dues must be paid by cash or check (no credit/debit cards). If paying by check, please make it payable to the Prince William Education Association. Also, the following Membership Form sections may be left blank: Social Security Number, Membership Type, and Payment Options.

*VEA-R membership provides only limited UniServ assistance and does not cover members for employment-related problems. If you are retired but have chosen to return to full or part-time teaching in a special program, you may want to become an Active Member of PWEA/VEA/NEA in order to make use of your UniServ Director's expertise or to participate in the VEA/NEA Legal Services Program (Kate Frank-Dushane Program). For additional information about membership in PWEA-R, VEA-R, and NEA-R, its benefits and limitations, please contact the PWEA Office (703-361-2444) or PWEA-Retired (retired@pweaveanea.org).

Lifetime members and pre-retired subscribers will not be required to pay additional dues at any time in the future for any reason. Annual members will be sent a renewal form each year prior to September 1. Annual membership dues are subject to yearly increases.
